Comments:

Dear Secretary Tom Vilsack and Chief Tom Tidwell,

I write to urge the U.S. Forest Service NOT to reopen the coal mining loophole in the Colorado Roadless Rule. By paving the way for more coal mining, this loophole will undermine President Obama's commitment to reducing climate pollution. In addition to contributing to global warming, the greatest danger facing our planet, this loophole will set the stage for damage to valuable recreation and hunting areas and wildlife habitat. All this to benefit one corporation.

Keep the Colorado Roadless Rule as it is and reject the coal mining loophole in the Colorado Roadless Rule.
