Dear Decisionmaker,

I write today to ask you abandon your effort to re-instate the coal mining loophole to the Colorado Roadless Rule. It's time for the Forest Service to cut free of it's abusive relationship with big coal. Look for innovation to bring your agency into the 21st century. Get with the program or become irrelevant - it's your choice. I've attached a LTE that was recently published in my local newspapers discussing just how damaging this proposal is to other values on my public lands.
