Withdraw Plan to Allow Coal Mining in Protected Roadless Areas RE: Rulemaking for Colorado Roadless Areas - Supplemental #46470

Re: Withdraw Plan to Allow Coal Mining in Protected Roadless Areas RE: Rulemaking for Colorado Roadless Areas - Supplemental #46470

Dear U.S. Forest Service - Ken Tu,

Dear U.S. Forest Service, Don't be silly. The only reason to change the Roadless Rule is to line the pockets of people who need to find a new line of work. Just because there are jobs tied up in the coal industry today does not mean the USFS needs to do something as short sighted as letting that dying industry tear up more forest land. If you think about your kids, grandkids and great grandchildren your course of action will be easy to discern. Please keep the Colorado Roadless Rule as it is. Reject the coal mining loophole. Sincerely,

Sincerely,

Andrew Burgess
