Big Ivy: concerned citizen

Dear Allen Nicholas, Matt McCombs, Michelle Aldridge, and the Forest Service Planning Team,

Please protect ALL of Big Ivy as wilderness and backcountry.

Please designate Big Ivy's trail network and the old-growth forests of Coxcomb Mountain and Snowball Mountain as backcountry. Interface and Matrix are not appropriate management for the 1,000 acres of old growth forest in these sections of Big Ivy.

Each year more and more land is being logged, destroying natural habitat. When will enough be enough? Until there is no more left? What will we tell our children and grandchildren. We must protect what is left.

Thank you,
Katherine Shaw
