Rico West Dolores Roads and Trails Project

ADD YOUR COMMENT HERE

Not every acre in Colorado needs to be commercialized.

The extension of motor vehicles to otherwise quiet and peaceful Nature does no one but the unaware any good. Getting "away from it all" does not include the sound of motors and whoops of fun seekers who upset the whole reason for being out in nature.

There are back roads and trails that are already being used that provide the whoopers with plenty of space to do their noisy thing.
