Comments:

I want to voice my support for changing the rules for Alaska to allow more roads in the Tongass. I live in Klawock on Prince of Wales Island. We will use these roads for access to hunting areas; we depend on the deer harvest for our red meat. But in addition to hunting access, more importantly, is the access for logging that opening up the road system would bring. The Viking Mill is an integral part of our Island economy and it has been and continues to be greatly impacted by the roadless issue in the Tongass. We need a change to keep our economy vibrant. Thank you for supporting this change in rules. Val Steward
