Comments:

To Whom it may concern,

As a lifelong Alaskan who has used the Chugach in many different ways over my last 51 years, I would be opposed to any more restrictions in the forest. From hunting to fishing to hiking to snow machining, I spend a lot of time in the mountains all across Alaska. With so much federal land in the State of Alaska that already carries so much restriction, it would be a shame to add more restrictions to the Chugach, which is in a large part of the population of Alaskans back yard.

We appreciate your consideration.
