Comments:

Born and raised in Fairbanks Alaska I grew up riding snowmachines. In 2009 I was accepted into the Operators Union where I spent 4 months going to apprenticeship school in Palmer. I always heard about the riding down south so I threw my sled in and headed for school. I was blown away by how awesome the riding was in the Chugach and it being so close to Anchorage. Since then I have met some really good friends and try to make it down to the Chugach to go snowmachining 3 or 4 times a winter. The Chugach is a very special place to me and I would be devastated to see it go non-motorized. I am in favor of option B.

Thanks,
Virgil
