As a paraglider pilot who loves in central Idaho and has flown all over the world including deep in the Himalayas, I can tell you honestly that King Mountain ranks as one of the absolute best places for free flight in the world. It's a legendary, historic launch site for both paragliding and hang gliding. The road up to launch makes it one of the most accessible resources for free flight in the west.

I highly stress the importance of maintaining the road up to the launch site (King Canyon Rd near Moore ID) for the free flight community.

Thanks Willi
