Comments:

I am a 40-year veteran hang glider pilot living in the Pacific Northwest. I have long wanted to fly the King Mountain site and explore the Lost River Range from the air. As I near retirement, I was hoping to realize this goal in the next few years. In our small community, King Mountain is considered a premier flying site.

I am a member of the US Hang Gliding & Paragliding Association, and of the Cascade Paragliding & Hang Gliding Club.

I urge you not to close road access to the launch sites on King Mt.

Sincerely,
Neil Clark
