Comments:

I whole heartedly support more Idaho wilderness, and no better place remains in our wild state than the Lost, Lemhi and Pioneer ranges. I go to these places to find solitude and unspoiled beauty, which are both becoming a more precious resource in this rapidly growing state. I also go to wilderness to bird, photograph scenery and explore. Approaching early retirement these ID wilderness areas are now more precious to me for sharing with my grandchildren. Please do everything in your power to give these ranges permanent wilderness designation.
