This has to stop. These old growth forests are priceless and the potential long-term value from tourism, recreation, and research are only tiny drops in the bucket. This is so short-sighted to benefit only a few who mistakenly think it their "right". The true cost is imposed on all of us, and the profit will not outweigh. Horrible. Makes me sick. These are our natural cathedrals, truly created by god. Where are the millions to buy and preserve this?!
