Comments:

Please keep all of Custer-Gallatin National Forest (especially the Crazy Mountains), from being developed any further, and please give these mountains and forest more protection, not less. I have been coming to this area for over 20 years to hike, camp, and fish. I love both the Beartooth and Crazy mountains in particular for their uniqueness, awe-inspiring beauty, and many pockets of quiet solitude. Any further development of any kind will lessen the value for ever-growing future generations to come.
