

Date submitted (Alaskan Standard Time): 10/18/2019 12:00:00 AM

First name: Kristoffer

Last name: Meunier

Organization:

Title:

Comments:

Removing the Tongass National Forest from the 2001 Roadless rule would be a grave mistake. We have already destroyed/mismanaged so much of what was once true wilderness. We need to leave what remains untouched. Instead we should focus our efforts on creating a more regenerative use of our natural resources. We can do this with millions and millions of acres we currently mis manage.

[Position]

[Position]