

Date submitted (Alaskan Standard Time): 10/21/2019 12:00:00 AM

First name: Charles

Last name: Glossenger

Organization:

Title:

Comments:

At a time when we should be planting more trees due to climate change, the forest service wants to allow logging and development ? The U.S. Forest Service is not in denial about climate change so this should be a no-brainer but due to the pursuit of money they want business to trump science. This is sad especially since the Tongass is designated roadless. I ask you to deny this project for the sake of us all. Sincerely; Charles Glossenger

[Position]