

Date submitted (Alaskan Standard Time): 12/16/2019 12:00:00 AM

First name: Anon

Last name: Anon

Organization:

Title:

Comments:

I oppose opening the Tongass National Forest to logging and adding more roads. How many of our natural lands already have roads crisscrossing them so why degrade our lands further? Leave our wild places as wild as they can be. If people want to get into these areas they can put in the hard work of backpacking or hiking there. No more roads for the lazy, plenty of parks have those already.

[Position]