

Date submitted (Alaskan Standard Time): 12/17/2019 12:00:00 AM

First name: Anon

Last name: Diane

Organization:

Title:

Comments:

Keep the Tongass roadless!!!

The Tongass forest is one of the most important resources for the largest salmon runs in the United States. It is a place with thousand year old trees and multitudes of wild animals. It must remain undeveloped and roadless, just as it has been since the beginning of time.

The Tongass belongs to all of the citizens of this country, not to commerce. It is a special and unique place that must be left alone!

Diane Blankenship

Sammamish Washington

[Position]