

Date submitted (Alaskan Standard Time): 12/17/2019 12:00:00 AM

First name: Helen

Last name: Payne

Organization:

Title:

Comments:

No Action!

Logging Tongass National Forest would be a tragedy. Being the worlds largest temperate rainforest, this National Forest is a huge carbon sink extracting pollution from the air. On top of this, the forest spans many elevational gradients making it extremely biodiverse. Logging here would degrade the land along with the flora and fauna it holds. It will set a president that none of our protected land is safe. Please, no action!

Regards,

Helen Payne

Sent from my iPhone

[Position]