

Date submitted (Alaskan Standard Time): 12/17/2019 12:00:00 AM

First name: Tribal

Last name: Scribal

Organization:

Title:

Comments:

Protect Tongass

The Tongass National Forest is a major buffer against climate change and a refuge for salmon, birds, and other wildlife. Much like the trees of the Amazon rain forest, the Tongass's stands of ancient trees are champions at absorbing greenhouse gas emissions. The Tongass stores approximately 8% of the total carbon stored in all national forests. Logging and road building in the Tongass would be a climate crime of the greatest magnitude.

Don Ogden, producer

The Enviro Show

Florence, MA 01062

[Position]