

Date submitted (Alaskan Standard Time): 12/17/2019 12:00:00 AM

First name: Anon

Last name: N/A

Organization:

Title:

Comments:

HC3084

The motto of the Forest Service is carry for the land and serving the people. Exemption from the Roadless Rule (Alt 6) is a disgrace to both parts of that motto, and serves only big corporations looking to use roads to extract additional resources from the Tongass.

If exceptions an case-by-case have been previously granted, why is this necessary? And why is public opinion being IGNORED? Secretary Purdue needs to explain.

[Position]