

Date submitted (Alaskan Standard Time): 12/17/2019 12:00:00 AM

First name: Chrissy

Last name: McNally

Organization:

Title:

Comments:

HC6361

The Roadless Rule was put in place with significant public support. Many have benefited from th is protection, but only a few will benefit from its removal. Any benefits[text in quotes from emphasis] experienced by removing the RR will be temporary in anture and breifly enrich a few. The livlihood or SE Alaska is one of subsistence, recreation and sence of place. Protecting the Tongass protects people & habitats for generations.

[Position]