

Date submitted (Eastern Standard Time): 10/26/2020 1:54:42 PM

First name: LeAnna

Last name: Merrill

Organization:

Title:

Comments:

Our forests are fragile, and already suffering the effect of heavy use. The amount of damage to our trails and areas around them brought on by heavy e-bikes would be heartbreaking. The noise and speed would make the wilderness less inviting for those who go out there to be alone. Keep the trails open to non-battery powered bikes, hiking, trail running and horses.